Dear Reader,

What are the major levers through which humanity has attempted to change the world?

How far has it taken us?

Can there be a different lever for change?

How does one do it? Where does one begin? How does one act? Does it happen individually or at a larger level? What safeguards it from getting trapped (like the earlier levers of change)? What is so different about this?

What kind of world do I want to see? How will it be created? What is my role in it?
