

Ritika Goyal

Treasurer, The Gnostic Centre

Qualifications

Justice Administration: Edith
Cowan University
(Australia)

Certificate of Professional
Studies (Power of Attitude),
CODE, Hometon College,
University of Cambridge, UK
& The Gnostic Centre, New
Delhi

LLB (Law Faculty, University of Delhi)

BA: Political Science (Hindu College, University of Delhi)

Work Experience

Treasurer & Founder-Trustee, The Gnostic Centre (since 1996)

Advocate, High Court, New Delhi

United Nations of Youth

Ritika is a practising advocate at the High Court (Delhi) and specialises in Corporate Law. She looks after the legal and financial work of The Gnostic Centre and is also involved in the execution of different works at the Centre, such as creation of multimedia presentations (especially scripting and graphics), running of the Alchemy café and health centre, further growth and expansion of the Centre's infrastructure, etc.

Ritika's special focus of research has been on how to develop the mind and she has taken classes with students, college youth as well as teachers, both in Delhi and outside.

Ritika has always been interested in social change - she has worked with street children and was also involved in an international youth movement. Ritika has trained as an athlete, and also in Bharatnatyam and folk dance.